Featured Searches of the firm now include:

1. Tax Manager for ALO Yoga in Beverly Hills. This newly created position reports directly to the Senior Manager of Tax we brought to the company a year ago. ALO is headquartered in Beverly Hills. The ALO work culture stays authentic to a yoga lifestyle. They believe mindful movement changes who we are, making our lives and communities better. They look forward to inspiring positive change for both the company and the planet, having manufactured in a socially and environmentally responsible way since day one.

2. Tax Manager for a very large and successful multi-generational Family Office in Beverly Hills. This newly created position is due to the growth of the Family Office and its investments and philanthropic activities. This person will join the Tax Director and Senior Tax Manager we also brought to the company several years ago. If you are ready to graduate from public accounting and focus on one incredible client this could be the “Family” for you!

3. Director of Corporate Tax with a focus on International and Indirect Tax in Los Angeles (HYBRID). This highly visible leadership role will partner directly with the Head of Tax to shape, execute, and enhance the company’s global tax strategy across international direct tax, indirect tax, digital services tax, and transfer pricing. As a key member of a lean, high-impact tax team, this leader will thrive in a dynamic, fast-paced, publicly traded tech environment with significant global reach and operational complexity. The company offers a hybrid work schedule and the opportunity to influence tax strategy at scale within a high-growth international organization.

Inspiration comes from C.S. Lewis, British author and scholar: “There are far better things ahead than any we leave behind.”
